

Travelogue On Jodhpur

About Jodhpur:

Jodhpur is a state located in Rajasthan. Jodhpur, also known as the "Blue City," is a vibrant city in Rajasthan, India, with a rich history and unique characteristics. It's famous for its distinctive blue-painted buildings, particularly in the old city, which were once predominantly the homes of Brahmins. The city is also known as the "Sun City" due to its bright and sunny weather.

Famous Hotels in Jodhpur

A majestic tribute to the deep-rooted culture and heritage of Marwar, The Umaid Jodhpur is a place where time stands still and where each day is a new celebration. Nestled in the dramatic natural beauty of lush green gardens, the 28-acre five-star palace resort is an architectural masterpiece of one of India's most celebrated architects, Hafeez Contractor.

Famous Cuisines of Jodhpur

Dal Baati Churma:

A classic Rajasthani dish consisting of lentils, baked wheat balls (baati), and a sweet, crushed wheat mixture (churma).

Gatte ki Sabzi:

A flavorful vegetable curry made with gram flour dumplings (gatte) and a creamy tomato-based gravy.

NAME-VYANSH AGGARWAL

CLASS-4B

ROLL NO.-28